REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

MISSIONS.—Salvation is of grace. It is a blessing bestowed upon undeserving creatures. It is a gift, and as such it puts the beneficiary under obligations of gospel blessings, and privileges are committed to his people as a trust. Paul regarded himself as a debtor both to the Greeks and to the barbarians, both to the wise and unwise. Destitute places in our state need the gospel. The home field is white unto the harvest; the foreign fields teem with perishing millions of heathen that need the gospel. Individuals and churches that do not respond to the call of this great need are false to the trust committed to them by a kind and gracious Heavenly Father. Some of our churches make little or no contribution to missions, others are not doing what might be expected of their ability. In the year 1898 the Rock Mills Association, representing a membership of 921, contributed $37.02, or 4 cents per head. More than this is expected of the Rock Mills Association. Brethren, awake to the great responsibility that rests on us as a body. Respectfully submitted.

W. J. LAYTON, Chair'n.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.—We, your committee on Sabbath schools, beg leave to make the following report: We find in some localities that there is much interest being taken, and in others we are sorry to say that the Sabbath school interest is almost dead. We trust it may be reversed in the future.

A. J. GREEN, Chair'n.

TEMPERANCE.—Your committee on temperance beg leave to make the following report: That we have some reason to believe that the evil of intoxication is not so great as has been in the bounds of our Association. Brethren, let us strive to drive this monster evil out of our midst. Brethren, let us be temperate in all things.

T. J. CAMP, Chair'n

PUBLICATIONS.—We, your committee on publications, beg leave to make the following report: We first recommend the reading of the Bible, next the reading of the Alabama Baptist and The Foreign Missions Journal. We know of no better paper for Sunday school than Kind Words.

S. D. LEWIS, Chair'n.

DECEASED MINISTERS.—Your committee on deceased ministers beg leave to make the following report: Since our last session it has pleased the Heavenly Father to remove from the walks of men our beloved Brother, Wm. McCarter, and in submission to his will let us humbly bow.

H. R. MOORE, Chair'n.

FINANCE.—We your committee on finance beg leave to make the following report:

For missions	$29.27
For minutes	10.00
For clerk	3.25
For A. J. Gross	17.90
Total	60.42

J. E. SATTERWHITE, Chair'n.

On motion suspended the regular order of business and made up Brother A. J. Gross $2.25 for ministerial education.

Regular order was resumed, and on motion appointed correspondents as follows: East Liberty Association—W. J. Layton; Arbecocche—T. J. Camp; Central Western—W. J. Layton
